

I am against giving priority to LPFM over current FM translators. K-LOVE is a station in my community that I listen to and give financial support to. K-LOVE provides me with a service that is in the public interest.